COOLIDGE VETOES FARM RELIEF BILL WITH VIGOROUS MESSAGE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—President Coolidge vetoed the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill today and in a vigorous message to congress explaining his action declared that the bill was unconstitutional, that it would not benefit the farmer, and that it was unworkable.

The President's veto throws down the gauntlet to his middle-western political opponents, who wrote and campaigned ceaselessly for the bill. It also kills any chance for farm relief legislation until next December, as there is no chance of enactment of the measure over the veto, nor is there time to put through any other program in the week remaining of the present session.

ONE KILLED, TWO WOUNDED WHEN BANDITS FIRE ON NIGHT CLUB

Four Men Train Machine Gun On Philadelphia Club During Private Party—One Of Wounded Men Expected To Die

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 25.—One man was killed and two others were wounded as a machine gun barked its message of death from an automobile which sped by the Club Cadix here early today.

The dead man is John Bricker, 28, address unknown. Six bullets riddled his neck, forehead and back.

WALKS THROUGH GLASS
CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 25.—John Armstrong, 46, night watchman, was suffering from numerous cuts today. He walked through a glass door in a candy store while making his rounds early today.

FORMER COMPANION OF WHITTEMORE IS HELD IN CLEVELAND

Gangman Surrenders To Detective After Long Hunt

CLEVELAND, O., Feb. 25.—"Nate" Weinzimmer, 28, believed to be a member of Richard Reese "Candy Kid" Whittemore's notorious gang of bandits, is held by Cleveland police, pending instructions from New York authorities.

According to local detectives, Weinzimmer is believed to be the man who drove Whittemore, his wife, Margaret "The Tiger Girl," and other members of the gang to this city after the $150,000 Fifth Avenue "job" was pulled in New York, in January 1926.

At that time Whittemore is thought to have "hidden out" in this city. Police records show that Weinzimmer was arrested, questioned and subsequently released.

A few days later local police received a request to pick him up, but until late yesterday, no trace had been found.

Weinzimmer came up to Detective Nathan Obrisky and calmly asked if he was wanted. Obrisky took him to central police station.

Whittemore was hanged at Baltimore August 14, 1926, for the murder of a guard at the Maryland penitentiary.

MARIETTA BANKER IS HELD AS EMBEZZLER

MARIETTA, O., Feb. 25.—A. W. Fish, teller of the Central National Bank of Marietta, was held under $10,000 bond, here today on charges of embezzlement, in connection with the closing of the bank last Wednesday.

Fish walked into the bank late Wednesday. It is reported, and calmly notified bank inspectors he had diverted $7,900 of the bank's funds to his own use. The speculation, it is said, occurred over two years ago, since which time Fish has succeeded in hiding his shortage.

Although at work for more than a week, federal investigators called by bank officials, have not reported a shortage.

"PEACHES" DOES NOT
"INSPIRE" ELDERS
BOSTON, Feb. 25.—"Peaches" Browning may be an "inspiration" to Donald Brett, twenty-five-year-old Brookline golf pro, as per dispatches from New York, but not to Donald's parents, who said today they did not like the publicity showered upon the family.

"Daddy" Brett was quoted as saying that his son used poor judgment in allowing his name to be coupled with "Peaches" and Mrs. Brett declared untrue the stories from New York that Donald and "Peaches" developed a strong friendship while in Bermuda.

BOULDER DAM BILL THREATENED ON ALL SIDES BY ENEMIES

Opponents Move To Displace Measure To Prevent Vote

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—Although assured of a vote tomorrow on the Johnson petition invoking cloture, the Boulder dam bill was threatened in the senate today on every side by drives to displace it in favor of other legislation.

One of the worst legislative jams in memory developed in the senate as a result of the filibuster against the Boulder dam measure and efforts of its advocates to force it to a final vote.

A dozen other bills of major importance languished on the sidelines while senators fought over the Colorado River bill or quarrelled over precedence for other bills. Few of these measures can be passed between now and adjournment one week hence, it was apparent, unless the Boulder dam filibuster is broken.

The fighting chance for Senator Johnson (R) of California, to win his remarkable fight for enactment of the bill, lay in the possibility that two-thirds of the senate will vote for cloture on it in order to end the filibuster. Unless cloture is adopted, it was said, the bill is doomed to defeat along with numerous other bills.

The immediate conflict facing the senate as it met today was a race between sponsors of a new public buildings and the alien property bills for the opportunity to displace the Boulder dam measure. Both groups were supporting motions to consider their bills instead of the Johnson measure but neither was assured of victory. In either event, the Boulder dam bill will return to its privileged status at 1 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for a vote on cloture.

JOHANNESBURG, Feb. 25.—Ten thousand fortune hunters entered in a mad race today when diamond claims upon a farm at Grasfontein were thrown open.

Professional men, clerks, tradesmen, and women joined in the race to peg out claims.

A group of professional runners were brought here from Australia to race to the newly-opened field and stake a claim for a syndicate.

Those traveling on foot were given a thirty minute start over those who chose to motor to the new fields, which were approximately two miles from the point where claimants were to start.

DIAMOND RUSH DRAWS 10,000

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 25.—Lynn F. Reynolds, 36, widely known Hollywood motion picture director, husband of Kathleen O'Connor Reynolds, beautiful screen actress, died in a Los Angeles emergency hospital today from a wound in his head, said by police to have been caused by a bullet fired by Reynolds with suicidal intent.

Kathleen O'Connor is a sister of the Rev. Father William P. O'Connor, former pastor of St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Jamestown and former national chaplain of the American Legion. The Rev. Father O'Connor is now located in Cincinnati.

EX-SENATOR DIES
CAMDEN, N. J., Feb. 25.—David Baird, 88, former United States senator from New Jersey, died at his home here early today, following a protracted illness.

ASKS ALLEGED MOVIE TRUST PROBE

STATES COMPANIES UNDER "CZAR" HAYS BAR COMPETITION

Indiana Exhibitor's Charges Will Mean Inquiry

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A complaint charging the existence of a gigantic moving picture trust, comprising all the corporations governed by Will H. Hays, movie "czar," has been filed with the department of justice with demand for an investigation, it was learned today.

Aside from admitting that a complaint against the alleged "Hays trust" had been received from Frank J. Rembusch, head of the Motion Picture Theater Owners' Association of Indiana and that an inquiry would be made, justice department officials declined to comment.

So far insufficient evidence to justify an anti-trust prosecution has been presented. It was understood, however, that Rembusch would be requested to furnish additional facts and that the department might launch a study of the make-up of the entire motion picture industry.

The charges made by Rembusch, in general, are similar to the allegations presented to the federal trade commission in the investigation of the Famous Players-Lasky combine, accused by the independents of restraining trade and eliminating competition in the movie industry. Hearings in this case virtually have been terminated.

Officials said that the charges brought by Rembusch are much more extensive in their scope than those against the Famous Players-Lasky corporation.

Rembusch, in his letter, alleged that all companies operating under Hays comprise a trust and that independents are unable to break into the movie business without his sanction.

The Hays organization and its members control the production and distribution field and dominate the entire industry, he said. The Hays association is said to control 95 per cent of the moving picture industry.

"If a theater owner complains, his character and business are subject to assassination," Rembusch wrote. "Often if a theater owner refuses to buy a picture they will send agents into his city to destroy the good will he has with patrons and threaten to build a theater in competition."

DAYTON PRISONER "FOUND" IN JAIL

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 25.—After being "lost" in the Covington, Ky., jail for nearly three months, Russell Harris, 23, was to be taken today to Dayton, O., today for trial on a charge of transporting a stolen automobile.

Arrested last November, Harris was ordered held in Kentucky pending a removal hearing; it was not until yesterday that local federal officials, wondering what had happened to his case, investigated and found he was still being held, and had not been given a hearing.

Harris' clothing was in tatters, and it was necessary for officers to buy him new clothing before he could appear for preliminary hearing.

SCARLET FEVER IS BLOCKING TOURNEY

MARYSVILLE, O., Feb. 25.—Scarlet fever scored its first victory here today in the state basketball high school tournament when the Union County health board passed resolutions prohibiting the team of the York Township Centralized School from taking part in the first elimination games Saturday. Twenty-five students, it is reported, are quarantined because of the disease.

PREMIER DESRITS "FAG" FOR PIPE

LONDON, Feb. 25.—Premier Baldwin is today in the ranks of the opponent of the cigarette. "Cigarette smoking is a messy habit," said the Premier, an inveterate pipe smoker, as he was presented with a beautiful pipe with an aluminum bowl at the British Industries Fair at Birmingham.

GLEE CLUB CONTEST
CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 25.—Thirty University of Cincinnati students will represent the glee club of that institution at the annual all-Ohio contest of the Ohio intercollegiate glee club council in Columbus today.

Ex-Judge's Home Bombed

CHANGES NAME. WINS FAME

What's in a name? Marion Rice, 17, beauty contest winner, changed hers to Joan Alden, and won fame in Hollywood. She's just been given a starring contract. Her home's in Chicago.

"BIG NAVY" ADVOCATES WIN VICTORY IN CRUISER PROGRAM

Hailed As Personal Victory For Longworth—House Now Considers Passing Ten-Cruiser Bill

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—"Big Navy" advocates, after winning a smashing victory in the house for funds to begin work on the last three cruisers of the 1924 program, were considering today trying to pass the pending ten-cruiser authorization bill.

The $325,000,000 naval supply bill, to which the three-cruiser amendment was attached, was to be sent to conference again today.

As the bill now stands, the senate demands $1,200,000 to begin work on the trio of cruisers, while the house is content with $450,000.

In accepting the amendment, 208 to 172, the house reversed its previous action in the face of the stern disapproval of President Coolidge. It was hailed by friends of Speaker Longworth as a personal victory. He left the speaker's chair to make an appeal for a strong navy.

Failure of Mr. Coolidge's arms limitation parley with keen resentment toward France and Italy, especially, was the reason ascribed by many house members for supporting the amendment.

VETERAN CATCHER DIES IN DETROIT

DETROIT, Feb. 25.—Thousands mourned the death today of Charles W. Bennett, 72, veteran catcher of Detroit's only championship team. He had been seriously ill since last November.

Bennett led the National League in fielding for ten seasons, a record never surpassed.

Bennett was born in Newcastle, Pa., in 1854. After playing semipro ball for a while he signed with the Milwaukee club and remained with this outfit until 1879 when he joined the Worcester club of the National League.

ABANDONS FLIGHT

ROME, Feb. 25.—Major Larre-Borges, Uruguayan aviator, who started an attempt flight across the Atlantic from Maricao last Sunday, has abandoned his flight, according to advices received here today from Casa Blanca, Maricao. Larre-Borges' plane is being dismantled, it is reported.

FRONT OF DWELLING WRECKED BY BLAST; FAMILY UNINJURED

Former Justice, Wife and Children Thrown From Beds

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Former City Court Justice John Palmieri, fifty-six, his wife and their four children narrowly escaped death early today when a time bomb wrecked the front of their home in Ocean Parkway, Brooklyn.

The force of the infernal machine hurled all six of their beds and threw terror into the residents of this fashionable section.

Two men in a sedan were seen to drive up to the house about fifteen minutes before the explosion; one walked up to the porch, dropped "something," and hurried back to the machine, which sped off.

Every window in the house, in which there are about fifteen rooms, was shattered. The front of the house was a total wreck.

A large squad of detectives are scouring the city for these two men, who police are certain were the writers of two threatening letters which Palmieri received about two months ago.

The letters warned the former judge that his house would be blown up.

CONFESSON OF TWO GANGSTERS CLEARS CONVICTED ROBBER

Release Of Prisoner Expected Following New Story

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 25.—Roy Bonar, 21, of Newport, Ky., today was believed to be cleared of a robbery for which he is serving a ten-year sentence in the Frankfort, Ky., penitentiary.

Additional confessions of two members of Cincinnati's gang of "highway terrorists" convinced county authorities that Bonar was not guilty of robbing a Pleasant Hill, Ky., store keeper of $700, for which crime he was sentenced.

William Anglin, 28, Cincinnati, now awaiting trial on a murder charge in connection with the slaying last month of Mrs. Sherlie Glendon, during a highway robbery near here and Gordon Lawrence, an admitted member of the gang who is facing numerous other robbery charges, admitted that they, with Howard Bonar, "pulled the job."

Roy Bonar, nephew of Howard, was not with them, they said.

Howard Bonar has been arrested and is being held here today on a charge of arson and for further investigation in connection with the robbery.

BELIEVE FORTY DEAD IN WRECK

One Hundred Hurt In Rail Disaster

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 25.—Bodies of the victims of the disastrous train-wreck near Tampico were being removed from the wreckage today, and physicians and nurses were giving aid to the injured.

The death list is now fixed at forty while it is believed that close to 100 suffered injuries.

A broken axle on one cap of the train, bound from Tampico to Monterey, caused a derailment and wooden cars were smashed into bits.

Most of the victims were workmen and their families.

Loses Fortune

A Rhode Island "divorce mill" divorce is legal, the State Superior Court held. And so Mrs. Mary Heath McGraw, former "Follies" girl, may lose the estate of the late Howard A. McGraw, whom she divorced shortly before his death.

DODGE FIRST MAKER OF FORD AUTO SUIT FOR TAXES REVEALS

Horseless Machine Manufactured In Machine Shop

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—In the beginning, according to the records today in the $30,000,000 Ford stock tax suit, the Ford automobile was made by Dodge Brothers.

That, at least, is the genesis of the Dodge fortune as given in behalf of the Dodge estate, which recently sold its automobile holdings to a New York banking syndicate for $175,000,000.

Here is the contemporary account, as taken from the trial record, of a $700 machine shop which grew up:

Horace F. Dodge started a small machine shop in 1901 with a combined capital of about $700. At that time, Henry Ford induced them to make motor parts for his new horseless machine, and to take stock in the company in payment.

For some time they made practically the entire car. In 1919, they finally sold their Ford stock 2,000 shares for $25,000,000.

With this story as virtually the last record, the tax hearing was concluded today with an agreement between court and counsel for the filing of briefs within fifty days, replying briefs twenty-five days thereafter, and oral arguments at the convenience of the court some time after May 1.

The ruling in the history making case probably will not be handed down until June.

FIRE ALMOST COMPLETELY WIPES OUT KENTUCKY TOWN; GUESTS FLEE HOTEL

WILLIAMSTOWN, Ky., Feb. 25.—The little town of Dry Ridge, four miles north of here, today was practically a smoldering mass of ruins, its business district and several residences having been wiped out by a fire early today.

No lives were reported lost, although thirty guests of the Caribbea Hotel, famous as a health resort, narrowly escaped death when the hotel burned.

They were warned in time to fight their way through heavy smoke and flames to safety.

A bank, the postoffice, moving picture theater, restaurant, confectionery, grocery store, and an undertaking establishment were leveled by the flames.

Damage was expected to exceed $250,000.

BRITISH, ITALIAN AND JAPANESE TAKE POSTS AROUND CITY

American Marines On Board Ship Ready To Land On Order

SHANGHAI, Feb. 25.—A thin line of foreign allied troops took to the field today to protect Shanghai and its large foreign population, while the maneuvering, warring Chinese military chieftains were preparing to fight it out among themselves to determine whether the northern or the southern faction shall control the city and its million dollars a month customs collections.

The British troops took up positions in the Joss field district far beyond the southwest boundary of the international concession. Japanese military occupied similar positions in the northern Kiangwan district. The American marines are remaining aboard the United States war craft in the Yangtze River, but are prepared to land on a moment's notice.

As this dispatch is filed, Shanghai is protected on the south and west by the British, on the north by Japanese, and on the east by Italian troops. Numerous foreign warships in the Yangtze guard the river front.

These precautions, a spokesman for the municipal government said, were a direct outgrowth of the arrival of Chang Tso-Lin's Fengtien troops, whom the spokesman characterized as the worst troops in all China.

The Fengtien troops apparently are winning the race with the Cantonese for Shanghai. Five thousand additional Fengtien troops arrived this morning, bringing their total to 8,000.

General Pi Shou-Chen, governor of Tsingtau and commander of a division of the Fengtien troops, in an interview today declared that at least 40,000 Fengtien troops will take the field against the Cantonese.

"The Nationalists are faced with certain defeat," General Pi said. "Our operations were determined upon after the most careful planning. Moreover, we northerners are the best equipped soldiers in China, and are seasoned campaigners."

General Pi refused to disclose the northern plans for the pending hostilities, but intimated that Sungkiang probably would be the scene of the heaviest fighting in the near future.

KLAN LOSES FIGHT OVER KANSAS LAW

WASHINGTON, Feb. 25.—A formal opinion by the Supreme Court dismissing the appeal of the Ku Klux Klan of Georgia from a Kansas order denying the Klan the right to operate in that state unless it complies with the state foreign corporation laws is expected to be handed down next Monday.

After hearing attorneys for the Klan argue the case, Chief Justice Taft and other justices indicated that the court is without jurisdiction.

MISSING GIRL IS FOUND BY POLICE

COHOES, N. Y., Feb. 25.—Kasia Mahoney, 15-year-old daughter of Supreme Court Justice Jeremiah T. Mahoney, New York City, who has been mysteriously missing from her home since Monday, was found here today.

Miss Mahoney walked into police headquarters about 7 o'clock last night and asked Police Chief Louis King if he could direct her to a "good" rooming house.

HIGH SCHOOL GIRL IS LATEST SUICIDE

CENTERVILLE, Iowa, Feb. 25.—The toll of student suicides was increased to eighteen today with the death of Deena Reich, pretty 16-year-old Meravia High School pupil. Miss Reich ended her life by taking carbolic acid.

This is the fourth student suicide in Iowa in two weeks.

FIRE THREATENING REBELS KILLED IN MEXICAN BATTLE

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 25.—Thirteen rebels have been killed in a battle in Hidalgo, some seventy-five miles from Mexico City, the federales claiming the battle to have been a victory for their forces.

Following a battle between federales and rebels three insurgents were executed near Iguala, Guerrero.

WHAT to WEAR and HOW to WEAR IT

By LUCY CLAIRE
Favorite Fashion Adviser
of the Smart Set

One day each week I have set aside as a day for dresses that can be made at home. I have found that so many women prefer to make some of their dresses at home, particularly so they may make them to suit their own particular requirements. With patterns as simply cut and clearly defined as they are today, there is really nothing complicated about some dressmaking. And by availing oneself of this possibility, you can have two or three frocks for the cost of one, ready-made.

Then, too, there are such beautiful materials to be found in the dress goods departments of stores that by selecting your own patterns and fabric, you can have a costume which satisfies you in every detail—color, silhouette, texture and line.

The new gingham which are so prominently displayed in all of the shops right now, I think are quite the most surprising and smartest innovation in fabrics! Unlike the old gingham, the new modish French gingham come in every imaginable pattern and color combination—plain colors, stripes, plaids, checks and compose shades.

The design at the left I have selected for two reasons: First, because it is one of the most pleasing arrangements of the two-piece sport mode, and second, because it illustrates the new, composed arrangement of two plain colored gingham. This is adaptable to two shades of green gingham—the slightly darker color being used for the chevron treatment on the blouse. In size thirty-six, this requires 2 5/8 yards of forty-inch material with 5-8 yard of the same width in the darker shade for trimming.

The center model shows you the importance of checks in our spring designs as well as the smart feature of a bolero blouse. This would work out beautifully in the new powdered blue gingham with the fine cross bars in a darker tone to which the trimming is matched.

For the thirty-six-inch size, this requires 3 1/4 yards of checked gingham, forty inches wide, with two yards of thirty-six-inch material for the outer blouse and trimming.

In the other model I have shown you the striped gingham in a dress of straight-up-and-down lines, further accentuated by the vertical movement of the stripes. This, you will immediately realize, is suited to the woman who wishes to appear taller and more slender than she really is. I would suggest, for early spring use, one of the new gingham of light beige color with the pin stripes in dark brown. About 3 1/2 yard of plain material is sufficient for the vestee and cuffs with 2 3/4 yards of forty-inch gingham in the striped pattern for size thirty-six.

And remember in selecting your gingham that you need not fear colors and color combinations, because gingham is not only sunfast, but tubfast as well. The beautiful new patterns adapted from the trend in sport clothes on the Riviera and a sudden perfecting of weaving processes seem to have been mainly responsible for the rather startling modishness of the new gingham.

COUPLE RAISES FIVE ORPHANS, ADOPTS FIVE MORE

MRS. H. J. EWING, HOLDING HER BABE, AND SURROUNDED BY FIVE ADOPTED CHILDREN

By J. S. PHILLIPS

Exclusive Dispatch, Copyright, 1927
MARTINEZ, Cal., Feb. 5.—When a couple of moderate means have raised five adopted children in addition to one child of their own, and seen these thrive and marry happily, most folks would think they'd done enough.

But Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Ewing, who did just that, think, are doing it all over again. They have another baby of their own—and in addition, have adopted five more youngsters nobody else wanted.

"It sure keeps a body's house upset, but I guess it's well worth it," says Mrs. Ewing as she dusters around her second brood, really blushing when praised for her generous undertaking. "We couldn't do anything else. We had great success with the others, who were orphans or foundlings; all are well off, and I of course fuss around the orphanages in Oakland while I lived there."

"Then these poor kiddies came in—all brothers and sisters. They were scattered all over the east bay district, separated for life, it seemed. And then this one or that one would change their minds about raising the dear little souls."

"We brought them home to let them have a little reunion, and, somehow or other, they just stayed. We've had them two years now, and have just completed adopting them. My husband says, 'We can always put a couple of more cups of water in the soup kettle, and we'll all get along fine.'"

And the Ewings have gone still further for the sake of their second brood. Apartment life in Oakland wasn't the thing for children—so Ewing turned farmer and moved to Pacheco, near here. They have a house that is rather unimpressive from the outside, but inside it bustles with the love and sunshine of mother love and the grateful love of benefited outcasts.

Mr. and Mrs. Ewing know all about the new children's antecedents. But that, they say, is their business. With the Ewings' own baby, Mary aged eight months, they give this motherly soul the joy of praising, petting, scolding, rubbing and worrying over six of them. Mathilda, 16, cares for the baby. David, 15, and Emil, 13, help at times with the farm chores. Olga, 11, has the dishwashing job, and Johnny, 5, is official companion of Baby Mary while the rest are at school.

"It keeps a body's house upset all right," says Mrs. Ewing, "but imagine a bleak house with no children to upset things. And no matter how many we have, we'll always make room for children nobody wants."

"The Master said, 'Suffer little children to come unto Me,' and they sure can make it the kingdom of heaven for you here on earth."

SALARIES OF MAYOR AND DESK SERGEANT WILL BE INCREASED

A little question of remuneration again featured the regular meeting of City Commission at City Hall Thursday night.

After consideration, a committee appointed by S. M. McKay, president of the commission, to investigate and make a report on an application of Mayor John W. Prugh, for an increase in salary, recommended that his annual income be boosted from $1,200 to $1,650. This is a raise of $450.

Before the increase can become effective, it must first be introduced in the form of an ordinance. Commissioners also turned a kindly ear to an application of H. L. Karch, desk sergeant on the police department for a salary increase, the same committee suggesting that he be given a boost of $10 per month or $120 per year. He now receives $90 per month. This must also be placed in ordinance form.

Written application of the five regular members of the Xenia Fire Department for increases in salary was also presented at the meeting and taken under consideration by the commissioners. The application did not specify any certain amount desired, leaving this item to the discretion of the commission.

This whole-grain food brings extra flavor—extra nourishment

The natural, unspoiled flavor of the whole grain—that's what makes a bowl of Mother's Oats taste so good. It cooks so smoothly, too—and you can always count on it being the same. For the careful millers of Mother's Oats have learned how to make oats finer—smoother—more uniform—through 50 years of experience. Children notice the difference at once. And mothers are especially glad to see their growing children enjoy this nourishing breakfast. They know how child health specialists are urging the whole grains these days. Mother's Oats with milk makes a liberal contribution of vitamins—minerals—protein and other elements that are necessary for sound and perfect development. Two kinds—the kind you have always known or Quick (cooks in 2 1/2 to 5 minutes). Both with coupons interchangeable with Aunt Jemima coupons, good for silverware and many other handsome articles.

MARRIAGE IN WEST OF INTEREST HERE

Friends in Xenia and Yellow Springs, will be interested to learn of the marriage of Miss Virginia Thelme, of Beverly Hills, Cal., formerly of Fort Wayne, Ind., to Mr. William F. Morris, Evanston, Ill.

The couple, after a wedding trip in the South, will reside at 1621 Ridge St., Evanston. Mrs. Morris is a graduate of Dana Hall and Smith College where she was an honor student. Following her graduation she took a three months' trip abroad and since has been residing with her family in California.

Mr. Morris is a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis and following his graduation enjoyed a six months' sojourn through Europe. Since returning to this country he was employed by the American Locomotive Co. in New York and for the past year has been located in Chicago. Mrs. Morris on several occasions visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Carper, N. Galloway St. The wedding was an event of great social importance in Beverly Hills. Mrs. Morris' grandfather, the late Morgan Adams, formerly owned the Bryan Arm at Yellow Springs.

FRIENDS MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS WEDNESDAY

Mrs. N. D. Miers opened her home on Chestnut St., Wednesday afternoon, for the regular meeting of the Missionary Society of the Friends Church. Mrs. Miers was assisted by Mrs. John Pramer. "Washington Day" was observed and Mrs. Matilda Green led the devotional exercise. About twenty members responded to roll call with patriotic quotations. Mrs. Mary Dymond gave a word picture of Mount Vernon, followed by a paper on the life of Washington by Mrs. Bessie Jones.

Mrs. Edna Burkett then gave "The Beginnings of Our Foreign Missions." Mrs. Conwell and Mrs. Linton were guests. The hostess served refreshments consisting of wafers, ice cream and coffee. Tiny red hatchets were given as favors.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Florence McKinney, W. Second St.

BIRTHDAY SURPRISE PLANNED ON THURSDAY

A birthday surprise was arranged honoring Mr. Harry Ralls, E. Second St., Thursday evening. The company of guests spent the evening with cards and dancing. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Mr. Ralls' guests for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Ralls, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kendrick, and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Mason and daughter, Hazel; Mrs. Ella Linkhart and two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jaffery and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Ralls Derrick and children.

GIVEN BIRTHDAY SURPRISE THURSDAY

Miss Mildred Cross was pleasantly surprised at her home Thursday evening, by twenty of her friends, the occasion being her twenty-second birthday. Miss Cross received a lovely array of gifts. The evening was spent with music and games.

A salad course was served late in the evening, after which the guests departed wishing her many more happy birthdays.

Funeral services for Mrs. Margaret Collins, 62, who died at her home in Cedarville Thursday morning, will be conducted at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the United Presbyterian Church in Cedarville. Interment will be made in Clifton Cemetery.

Friends may call at the residence, 836 N. King St., any time Friday evening to view the remains of Mrs. Mildred Lampert, 39, who passed away Wednesday night at 11 o'clock.

Mr. John Lemmons, Cincinnati Pike, who has been ill for some time, is in a critical condition.

Miss Lucile Denham, Springfield, (niece of Xenia, who has been proofreader on The Springfield Sun, for the past eight months, has resigned that position and accepted the society editor's position on the same paper. She takes the place of Miss Helen Clark, who resigned.

Mr. James M. Carper, N. Galloway St., has been confined to his home the past week with an attack of lumbago.

Mrs. Doss McCoy, Cincinnati Ave., who has been seriously ill for the past week, is showing slight improvement.

Mrs. C. L. Babb, E. Church St., who has been severely ill for several weeks, while visiting her daughter, Miss Alma Babb, in Chicago, has convalesced and is expected to return home in a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Orr, N. Detroit St., returned Friday from Indianapolis, Ind., where they spent a short time on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacobs are moving from W. Church St. to W. Third St., in a property owned by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Parrett.

Mrs. R. J. Kelly, Mrs. Mildred Prugh and Mrs. William M. Wilson, composing a Xenia party that is touring the Holy Land and Egypt, are now in Rome, and will go from there to Florence, Italy.

Friends have received word from Mr. and Mrs. Reed Madden who are now in New Orleans, La., on a southern sojourn. They will go from there to Mobile, Ala.

The Rev. Father David Powers assisted by Rev. Father Edward McGinty of St. Augustine's Catholic Church, Jamestown, will officiate. The nuptial high mass will be celebrated.

The bride will have as her maid, her sister, Miss Elizabeth Ryan, with Miss Catherine Kennedy, sister of the bridegroom as maid of honor. Mr. Clarence Ryan, brother of the bride, will be best man.

OBEDIENT THIMBLE CLUB MEETS THURSDAY

Mrs. Leonard Covault proved a gracious hostess to eighteen members of Obedient Thimble Club and two visitors at her home on N. Detroit St., Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Covault had the assistance of Mrs. Cletus Patterson during the afternoon. Plans were made for an apron social to be held by the club the evening of March 15, at Junior Order Hall.

Refreshments, suggestive of Washington's birthday were served. The club will be entertained at the home of Mrs. A. R. Jones, High and Lynn Sts., March 9.

Mrs. Charles A. Davis entertained as her guests at 12 o'clock luncheon, Thursday, Mrs. Louisa Shigley, Mrs. Frank Shigley, Mrs. Jennie Pauline, Mrs. Alpha Little and Miss Pauline Little, of Jamestown. Mrs. Rachel Whitmer and Miss Dorothy Whitmer were Mrs. Davis' guests at 6 o'clock dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. LeSourd, W. Market St., who have been spending several weeks in Bermuda, are now in New York. They experienced a rough ocean voyage to New York, according to word received here. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dubois in Warren, Pa., before returning home.

Dr. and Mrs. A. B. May and family, are moving from the T. D. Kyle property, W. Church St., to the Gowdy apartment, on the same street, vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jacobs.

ILLUSTRATED TALK FEATURES MEETING OF MASONIC CLUB

An illustrated talk by Dr. E. M. Huston, Dayton, on the subject "A Trip to Alaska," featured the regular monthly meeting of members of the Xenia Masonic Club at the Masonic Temple Thursday evening. Nearly 125 men attended the affair.

Brief speeches were also delivered by E. E. Gibbs, Dayton, C. M. Rasor, Dayton secretary of Antioch Temple Shrine in that city, and O. P. Gilmore, Dayton.

Dr. Huston, who gave the main talk, lately returned from a trip to Alaska. He is considered one of the foremost physicians and surgeons in Dayton. He related his experiences in the far North illustrating his remarks with pictures.

Preceding the meeting, dinner was served by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Kany.

The regular meetings are being so enthusiastically attended that the suggestion was made to hold the sessions more frequently. Availability of inaugurating weekly dinner-meetings of the club members to be held at the Temple, will be left for consideration to a committee appointed by W. C. Downs, president of the organization.

This committee will discuss the suggestion from all angles and make a report of its recommendations at the next meeting in March. This meeting is expected to be open to both club members and their wives.

Friends may call at the residence, 836 N. King St., any time Friday evening to view the remains of Mrs. Mildred Lampert, 39, who passed away Wednesday night at 11 o'clock.

THE OLD HOME TOWN

MONDAY FINAL DAY FOR PAYMENT OF 1926 TAXES SAYS TREASURER

Monday, February 28 is announced to be the final day upon which the first half of 1926 taxes may be paid without delinquency, according to County Treasurer F. A. Jackson.

Hundreds of taxpayers are likely to allow their property to go delinquent by March 1. The tax books will positively be closed on March 1 and all property on which taxes have not been paid will go on the delinquent list.

Tax payments are based on the recent county-wide property reappraisal. Certified delinquent tax lists will be mailed out on the basis of taxes received up to and including February 28, it is announced.

More than two-thirds of the total estimated tax collection has been received, it is estimated and it is now calculated that nearly half a million dollars will be on hand when the books close, representing an average collection for the period. Much tax money is coming in by mail. Congestion will increase as the time limit approaches and, as is annually the case, long lines of people will gather before the receiving cages in the treasurer's office during the final few days, it is predicted.

DR. WILLIAM DICE DIES IN TOLEDO, O.

Word of the death in Toledo, O., of Dr. Wm. G. Dice, former resident of Xenia, and son of the late Dr. J. P. Dice, for many years one of Xenia's most prominent physicians, was received by Xenia relatives early Friday morning.

Dr. Dice is believed to have been about 60 years old at the time of his death. He had been suffering from heart trouble for some time but his condition had not been considered serious, and his death came unexpectedly. The end was hastened by two weeks' illness from pneumonia.

Dr. Dice was born in Xenia and moved to Toledo to begin the practice of medicine about twenty-five years ago.

He is survived by his widow, Gertrude E. Dice, who was before marriage Miss Gertrude McClure, a former resident of Xenia. Two children, William and Jane, also survive. Dr. Dice was the last member of his immediate family.

Funeral services will be held at the residence in Toledo at 4 p. m., Sunday after which the body will be brought to Xenia for burial in Woodland Cemetery, Monday afternoon.

Mother! It's Cruel to "Physic" Your Child

Dr. W. B. Caldwell, at the age of 83

To Dr. W. B. Caldwell, of Monticello, Ill., a practicing physician for forty-seven years, it seemed cruel that so many constipated infants and children had to be kept constantly "tired up" and half sick by taking cathartic pills, tablets, salts, calomel and nasty oils.

While he knew that constipation was the cause of nearly all children's little ills, he did not believe that a sickening "purge" or "physic" was necessary.

In Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin he discovered a laxative which helps to establish natural bowel "regularity" even if the child is chronically constipated. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin not only causes a gentle, easy bowel movement but, best of all, it never gripes, sickens or upsets the most delicate system. Besides, it is absolutely harmless and so pleasant that even a cross, feverish, bilious, sick child gladly takes it.

Buy a large 50-cent bottle at any store that sells medicine or write "Syrup Pepsin," Monticello, Ill., for a FREE SAMPLE BOTTLE and just see for yourself.

C O M MISSIONERS CONSIDER NEW EASTERN TIME ORDINANCE HERE

City Commission informally discussed the advisability of passage of an ordinance legalizing adoption of Eastern standard time by Xenia effective Sunday morning, April 3 and revoking the present Daylight Saving ordinance now in effect, at its regular meeting Thursday night.

Eastern standard time was officially adopted by Dayton Thursday afternoon to become effective at 2 a. m. April 3 in an ordinance passed as an emergency measure by City Commission at a special meeting. Xenia, to avoid conflict, is expected to do likewise.

The ordinance expected to be passed by the local commission will be in conformity with the recent ruling of the Interstate Commerce Commission legalizing Eastern time for most of Ohio, effective April 3. Xenia is included in the area affected by the decision.

City Solicitor J. A. Finney has prepared an ordinance changing Xenia's time April 3 but the measure was not introduced Thursday night. It may be introduced at the next commission meeting in order that it can become effective at the expiration of the thirty days provided by law. If commissioners delay in passing the ordinance, it may still be passed at a later date as an emergency measure and become effective immediately.

By provisions of the ordinance, all clocks in Xenia would be moved forward one hour at the time specified and from then on all public business will be transacted and all public records kept in accord with the new time.

The former custom of Daylight Saving time during the summer months was inaugurated several years ago but will be terminated with the new measure, which provides for repeal of the old ordinance and permanent adoption of Eastern time in this city.

SENTENCED TO YEAR IN DAYTON WORKS

Andrew W. Printz, 950 Oak St., Springfield, resident of Clifton, was fined $10 and costs and sentenced to spend one year in the Dayton Workhouse by Probate Judge S. C. Wright when he pleaded guilty to a charge of non-support of his wife and two small children Friday morning. The affidavit was filed by his wife.

Printz was arrested in Springfield as a fugitive from justice by Detectives Holderby and Sweet Thursday and returned to Xenia by Probation Officer J. E. Watts.

The half-a-day man

For months he had hated to face it. . . He was slipping. Losing out. He who once had shown such shining promise! His old-time vigor had gone. Ambition, itself! What had happened? He seemed to grow weary before the day was half-way through! What curse was beggaring his life?

Constipation blights many a bright career. It destroys initiative. It weakens the body and leads to disease after disease. Yet, constipation can be relieved—safely, permanently. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is guaranteed to give relief!

Why part-bran products are ineffective

Doctors recommend ALL-BRAN because it is 100% bran. They know that 100% bran means 100% results! Here is why:

ALL-BRAN carries through the system moisture which its "bulk"

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN is sold with this definite guarantee: Eat it according to directions. If it does not relieve constipation safely, we will refund the purchase price.

FIND INSPIRATION IN MUSIC

Charles G. Daves, vice president of the United States originator of the famous Daves plan, which was the basis for the financial rehabilitation of war-stricken Europe, and one of the nation's busiest men, is a great lover of music as are many other famous personages.

The General, as he is called by his friends, is also known as a composer of some repute, although he admits he never studied music. The Vice-President wrote a composition which was published for the violin and was played by no less an artist than Fritz Kreisler. Daves is a self-taught musician, his instrument being the flute. He often recalls the day when he and his mother who was an accomplished pianist, often played duets together and proudly admits that part of his college expenses he defrayed by playing in orchestras.

There is a popular belief that the giants of industry and the mammoths of politics have no time for music. They seem to be so busy making money or passing bills that little time is left for anything but perhaps a few hours of necessary sleep. It so happens that such is not the case. In fact, some of America's busiest figures find music a means of relaxation, inspiration and happiness.

Otto Kahn devotes a large portion of his time to the destinies of the great Metropolitan Opera. Samuel Insull spends many hours each year guiding the Chicago Opera through successful seasons. Owen D. Young, Walter C. Teagle, Miss Anne Morgan, Edward W. Bok, Clarence Mackay, John W. Davis and many others all incorporate music as a part of their domestic life.

Many play the piano, others the violin; some the modern ukele and many are just plain listeners. But at least each and every one of these foremost Americans appreciate the inestimable value of music.

GET THE MONEY

Embezzlement losses for the present fiscal year which ends in June, indicate that speculations of trusted clerks and officials, as well as other employees in various manufacturing and financial concerns, will total $125,000,000 or about $400,000 a day. This means that every time the hands of the clock point to a new hour in each working day, $50,000 has been stolen from employers somewhere in the land.

Losses from this source have increased tenfold in the last decade. The activities of embezzlers are not confined to any one locality, but cover the length and breadth of the nation cropping up in small towns as frequently as in large cities.

The trouble may traced in part to the wholly fictitious importance with which the modern world endows money.

"Get the money" is the slogan today. "Don't bother about how you get it but get it."

There is no public tribunal before which wealth must stand to explain the source of its opulence.

It isn't "Where did you get it?" but "How much have you got?"

Thousands of young men, born tired, seeing on every hand successful thieves in the business, professional and political world, thriving like so many green bay trees, determine to forswear the narrow road of probity for the broad, sunny stretches of the "easier way."

They read of "big killings" made in stock speculation and determine to take a chance with their employers' money.

Your embezzler never faces the fact. He never applies the word "thief" to himself. He never admits that the sole difference between him and the burglar is merely one of method, and that placed side by side, the man who jimmies his way into a vault is a thousand times to be preferred to the man who betrays someone's belief in his honesty.

The embezzler saves his conscience with the thought that he is merely "borrowing" the money, forgetting that borrow implies mutuality.

It's all right to brag about ancestors if nothing has happened since that you're proud of.

Keeping HEALTHY

CURING CONSTIPATION

Constipation, that is, the condition in which the intestine, particularly the large intestine or colon, is not properly emptied of its contents, is one of the most common afflictions of mortal man. It is so common that many people go through life with this condition fastened upon them, never knowing what it is to have a complete, thorough intestinal evacuation.

The consequence of this condition is that there may be a great accumulation within the bowel, especially the colon, of imperfectly digested food material, worn out intestinal tissues, bacteria and various other things which do not belong there and are of no benefit to the individual who carries them.

All sorts of troubles can result from such an accumulation. There is decomposition with the development of foul gases; there is absorption of poisonous material which is taken into the blood and carried over the system, producing all sorts of unpleasant symptoms, weakening the individual, rendering him susceptible to disease which may be prevalent and diminishing his resisting power to overcome disease if and when he is attacked.

A person who is a victim of chronic constipation is sallow, often irritable, easily fatigued and quite unable to do the daily task with satisfaction and success. Of course, some persons suffer more than others, some seem to acquire a kind of tolerance for this kind of poisoning just as others do for taking large quantities of alcohol or opium or arsenic or other poisonous substances. But it is a kind of tolerance which cannot be depended upon and which sooner or later is followed by troublesome consequences.

Physicians have taxed their brains for ages and ages to try and overcome this bad situation. I cannot begin to mention the things which have been devised, good, bad and indifferent to bring relief. At the present moment I am only going to mention one, mineral oil.

Mineral oil is petroleum of a certain degree of refinement, a certain degree of viscosity or stickiness. It was introduced into this country as a laxative some ten or fifteen years ago as Russian mineral oil.

I do not know why mineral oil from other countries may not be so prepared as to be as effective as that which comes from Russia. Its function is not to excite the muscular coat of the intestine which by its contraction expels the intestinal contents, though it must do that to a certain degree, but to lubricate and soften and loosen the material and particularly the hard masses which are caught and fixed in the folds with which the large intestine is so abundantly supplied. When the mass is thus softened and loosened the natural tendency will be downward and the current of progress like the downward current of a stream until the channel is emptied.

cases in which these extreme measures are necessary.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS
D. J. C.: My vulva is very long and when I lie down and try to sleep it causes irritation and coughing. It even troubles me during the day and talking for a few minutes will bring on a fit of coughing. It is a detriment to me in earning a living and I would be very grateful if you would advise me what to do in the matter.

Answer—If it is as troublesome as you have stated there should be no objection to having a portion of it cut off. Years ago a man in New York made a great reputation by cutting off this little organ, which is usually quite inoffensive. It became quite a fad, but after a time people found they were no better nor worse than before the operation, except perhaps in their imagination.

The Theatre

That young gentleman who has a winning smile as well as a punch in both of his capable fists is holding forth this week at the Bijou Theater, with his newest Paramount screen offering, "Paradise For Two." The picture opens Friday night for two nights.

Richard Dix is a young man whose remarkable versatility enables him to be cast in almost any role, it seems. He looks equally well as the Indian, the prizefighter, college boy or the man about town. And his actions in all cases have that rare quality of naturalness. He is therefore afforded wide latitude of action.

"Paradise For Two" bids fair to be as great a hit as his previous pictures. He is riding high on a well-deserved wave of popularity. As Steve Porter in "Paradise For Two" he is entirely sympathetic with the role. He is a rich young bachelor with a legacy that he can't collect, according to a stipulation in the will, until he is married. But further than this, all the women he knows are "gold-diggers" none of whom he would consider as his breakfast table companion for the remainder of his days. The only girl in whom he is at all interested, he has never seen. His acquaintance with her consists merely in a nightly look at her profile against the window of a room in a lodging house across his back court. How they met and the amusing situation confronted you will have to learn with a visit to the Bijou.

Critics agree that Mrs. Patrick Campbell, whose temperamental tantrums gained her a lot of publicity in bygone years, and who returned to the United States to play in "The Adventurous Age," has seen her day. The theater critic of "Time" says: "Patrons were shocked when the 'glorious madwoman' stepped before the footlights last week. She had become majestic in proportion to her performance. She embarrassed. Her play was a feebly repetitious comedy. But, even making allowances for the play, it is clear that Mrs. Pat. belongs to the dear dead days."

"The New Yorker" critic has this to say, "An event which brought forth hems and haws from the embarrassed critics was the

by FRED C. KELLY

FOUR STEPS IN EDUCATION
While visiting my old friend, Dr. Clarence C. Little, of the University of Michigan, the other day, I asked him to give me his theory of what education is.

He replied that he thinks real education consists of these four main steps: 1. Hunting—trying to find whatever it is that you're going to need.

2. Receiving—knowing what you're after when you see it. 3. Evaluation—knowing the relative worth of material you gather along the way.

4. Using—knowing what to do with your material after you get it.

In other words, a student must do for himself what a good editor does for his reading public. He must lay down a policy for himself and after determining roughly what he is trying to do, hunt, find, weigh and use.

"The trouble is," I suggested to Little, "that a young student doesn't know what to hunt for in the big game preserve of knowledge that he is going to explore. He doesn't know what varieties are to be found nor which will be most interesting."

"That's it exactly," agreed Little, "and for that very reason I should like to see all students have a greater variety of courses than heretofore in the first year of college, for purposes of orientation—that is, to help a student get his bearings and know what general direction he will wish to follow."

Since talking to Little, I have been thinking that what he says about education of students in college, would also apply to ordinary reading by people not in college. The reason most of us do not gain as much from reading as we might is probably because we have failed in one or more of the four steps that Little mentions. We read without much idea what we're hunting for, don't recognize that which is important when we see it, don't acquire enough sense of relative values, or don't use what we find.

Even if we read solely for amusement, we may just waste time because we do not take the trouble to look up books that would interest us, but accept any bit of current trash that the girl at the circulation library happens to hand to us.

Whether reading in college or in the bathroom, it is well to remember that a book is a hunting ground. But it's no sport to go hunting unless you know what game you're after and why.

Many Minds

SIGNIFICANT SAYINGS OF THE DAY

"On those occasions when we fail to understand existing phenomena the lack should be laid to a failure to understand, which the future may clear up, and we should not allow ourselves to prostitute intelligence by talking about fairies, ghosts, spirits and reincarnation of the dead."—Dr. William J. Mayo, world-famous surgeon, in an address at the University of Minnesota.

"Straight thinking on the part of parents concerning results of law violation is the most powerful factor in reducing the amount of drinking."—The ultimate effect of prohibition will be fine for the younger generation. Women do not drink any more than men, and the Eighteenth Amendment, and very few homes that did not have liquor before its passing have it now."—Mrs. Mabel Willebrandt, assistant attorney-general of United States.

"That (the McNary-Haugen 'farm aid' bill) is the most asinine piece of legislation ever to be tried out on the nation. It is useless. It is senseless. It is enacted into the law, it will take away entirely what little initiative and ambition the farmer now exercises. Subsidization, crop guarantees, federal intervention in such matters is all wrong. It cannot solve the problem."—Henry Ford, manufacturer.

"No satisfaction—at least no enduring satisfaction—can be obtained by the slogan: 'What is there in it for me?' The greatest element of success and satisfaction you can get is from the slogan: 'What is the best I can do?'—James Couzens, U. S. senator and financier.

Little Old New York

NEW YORK, Feb. 25.—Miami Mike was one of the adjective slingers orphaned by the untimely death of the Florida sand-lot and orange-grove boom.

Reaching New York with a thirty-two caliber appetite, a Palm Beach suit, a sunny disposition and a wild desire to succeed, he traded his Panama hat and alligator bag for a third carbon copy coat, and picked himself off a job with a Park Avenue Private, resuming his verbal circumlocutions where Circumstance had interrupted.

"Run me off a little ad for a four-room flat in a sucker joint," said the Boss, the other day.

And Miami Mike rolling back his lavender-and-saffron silk cuffs batted out the following:

"Exceptional studio apartment—Exotically and lavishly furnished, beautifully and tastefully appointed possessing a distinctive air and charmingly artistic. Furnished in mahogany, with grand piano. Outstanding features are the Marie Antoinette bed with bizarre canopy, concealed kitchenette, and fireplace. More than exclusive. Ultra."

Miami Mike subscribes to the belief that it isn't so much what you say, as in the number of people you can get to believe you.

"It was this way, Yerroner," said the policeman in high court. "This negro defendant, Taswell Sanders, was unloading a truck in front of the warehouse where he works. As I passes him he looks at me and says, 'Boo!' I comes back and I says to him: 'What do you mean by that?' And he says to me do I want a fight."

"Proceed," droned the magistrate.

"That's all," replied the cop. "When he returned from the hospital I arrested him."

A lad from the Lower Levels was given a chance the other day to plead guilty to petty larceny, the penalty for which is not more than a year in the penitentiary. He refused and went to trial, was convicted of criminally receiving.

How to Achieve Beauty

MAKE EVERY MOMENT OF YOUR DAY BEAUTY WHILE YOU EAT.

The heading today may strike you humorously. You may think it applies perhaps to table manners, the method and manner of eating, and you may say, especially as to the latter, that it would be some what difficult to be beautiful while you eat.

Putting aside the fact that I have seen many women who maintain their beauty of aspect under the most trying circumstances, that is not what I have in mind here. Perhaps my title should really be: Beauty in What You Eat.

This is one of the most important departments of utilizing the plan of the day for beauty. And for you can pack much damage to your skin and teeth and figure and in fact to the whole body, within five minutes at the table, or you can "contrariwise" build up just that much more beauty.

As to damage, it takes only a morsel or so to swallow a cup of coffee loaded with sugar and cream, to stow away a rich dish of meat, or to top off with a sticky pastry. And it takes no more time to enjoy a fruit salad, or a soup of vegetables, or a glass of milk—all beauty builders.

Do you know how little time the famous Mussolini gives to his meals? In a series of articles lately, which you may have read, he outlined his day, explaining how he was able to get through the tremendous amount of work he does. And I suppose no one at present in the public eye knows more about the efficient use of time than Signor Mussolini, even if he does not use it strictly in beauty culture. He does, however, abhor fat in a man or woman, and he does eat to keep himself slender as well as fit, an that is half the beauty battle.

And as to his daily menu, it goes something like this: At 8 in the morning a glass of milk. At 2, a dish very simply prepared, of meat and vegetables, or fish and vegetables, followed by fruit, accompanied by a glass of milk. At 6, another glass of milk. And at 10 a final one with perhaps a piece or two of fruit. In addition to this slenderizing diet, as we should consider it, he fasts for two or three days each month. Do you see now what I mean by utilizing mealtime, not only for enjoyment, but for health and beauty?

SONGS of a HOUSEWIFE

by Marjorie K. Rawlings

DOWN THE PIKE
When I was young, the nicest folks lived down a long road lined with oaks. But grown-ups, shrugging, used to say, "Oh, they live down the Pike a way."

The houses down the Pike were dusty. The curtains drab and torn and musty. But those who lived there seemed to me Delightful, careless, gay and free.

I liked each low, ramshackle cabin, Bordered 'round with ragged-robin. Where children played without a rule, And didn't have to go to school!

I've treasured for long years the thought, Not of living where I ought. But living, carefree, where I'd like—Dusty, happy, down the Pike!

Introducing 1927 Big League Clubs

THE ATHLETICS

Cornelius McGillicuddy, or Connie Mack, as he is known by the vast army of friends and fans, tried the impossible—to rebuild a pennant winner with his own hands—and lived to learn that it couldn't be done.

Seven successive years in the American League cellar convinced Mack that the quickest road to the top was experienced material—the more expensive the better.

Changing his policy, Mack has assembled a club for 1927 that stands out as the pennant favorite in the American League.

Once an economist, Mack overnight has become a philanthropist. And it is the feeling on the outside that if Connie falls to land on top with his 1927 vehicle he will never make the grade as long as he sits on the Athletics' bench.

Ponder over these three names: Tytus Raymond Cobb, Edward T. Williams, and Zachary Davis Wheat. A year ago they were in other parts, but for 1927 they are members of Connie Mack's Athletics.

If they do not carry pennant colors, then who does?

Cobb is the prize of the lot. Tytus Raymond, who spent twenty years in Detroit with the Tigers as Ty the Terror, is expected to aid Mack in winning another pennant for the Athletics. Ty's particular place of abode has not been officially decided, but there are three places in the outfield and it doesn't make much difference to Ty or the A's just where he resides.

With Wheat only familiar with left field, and Al Simmons accustomed to center, Ty probably will take over right field. Quite an array of fly-chasers and fence-busters!

It is not a three-man combination, either, for Bill Lamar, also a

ATHLETICS OF 1927

Holdovers
Pitchers—Robert Grove, Samuel Gray, Howard Ehmke, John Quinn, Edwin Rommel, Joseph Pate, George Walberg, Charles Willis.

Catchers—Gordon Cochran, Ralph Perkins, James Fox.
Infielders—James Poole, first base; Max Bishop, second base; James Dykes, third base; Clarence Galloway, shortstop; Samuel Hale, utility.

Outfielders—Al Simmons, Bill Lamar, Walter French.

New Players
Pitchers—Glenn Darrrough, from Dallas; M. A. Hunter, from Fort Worth; William Shores, from Wichita Falls; Carroll Yerkes, from Dover, Del.

Catcher—Charles Bates, from Martinsburg.

Infielders—Eddie Collins, from White Sox; Joe Boley, from Baltimore; Dudley Brannan, from Kansas City; Joe Hauer, from Wheeling, W. Va.; Francis Sigafos, from Reading, Pa.

Outfielders—Ty Cobb, from Tigers; Zack Wheat, from Brooklyn; David Barbee, from Greensboro; Alex Metzler, from Wichita Falls; Max West, from Waco.

slugger of known ability, and Walter French, a juvenile star, will be around in case something happens to any of the regulars. Mack has Dave Barbee from Greensboro, Alex Metzler from Wichita Falls, and Max West, from Waco, fancy rookies who were tried out last fall to look over this spring.

The infield also has been made over. Why, Connie has such a surplus he can present two different combinations without showing a weakness. Dudley Brannan, who for several years while with Kansas City tried to convince the major leaguers he does not belong in the American association, is a first base candidate. James Poole, who filled in acceptably for Joe Hauser for two years, also is around.

Then there is second base for Eddie Collins. They say Eddie may not be able to stand 154 games. All right, then there is Max Bishop, who has been Mack's regular second baseman for two years. Mack can sit back in the rocking chair without any worry about second base.

Third base presents Jimmy Dykes and Sammy Hale. There is not much difference between them, reliable fielders and hard hitters as right handers.

Now for shortstop. Since Jack Barry reached the end of his career Mack has been worried about this position. A dozen or more have been tried at the place. He thought Clarence Galloway would fill Jack's shoes, but "Chick" was not steady enough for the long grind of a full season.

The minor league territory produced but one shortstop who appeared ripe for major league company last season. He was Joe Boley of the Baltimore Orioles.

Mack fetched himself Boley and if Joe is as good as his admirers say he is the A's have a better shortstop than Jack Barry.

Eight infielders, all considered regulars, so Mack is protected all around. Joe Hauser, from Wheeling, W. Va., and Francis Sigafos, from Reading, are other infielders, but they are not needed.

With Gordon Cochran, Ralph Perkins and James Fox around for his catching staff, Mack went out and drafted Charles Bates from Martinsburg. If this youngster arrives with the Athletics he will not get out of the bull pen all summer.

Cochran is the fanciest young catcher who has entered the American league since Ray Schalk arrived fifteen years ago. Perkins and Cochran make an ideal catching pair for the Athletics.

The pitching staff has received but one important addition. Having Bob Grove, Samuel Gray, Howard Ehmke, Jack Quinn, Ed Rommel, Joe Pate, George Walberg and Charley Willis, Connie did not go in for expensive purchases in this department. He purchased Southpaw Glenn Darrrough from Dallas and drafted Southpaw Hunter from Fort Worth. Bill Shores from Wichita Falls, and Carroll Yerkes from Dover, Del., are the other young pitchers.

The Athletics promise to be the big and winning attraction in the American league next summer with this collection.

BLISS COLLEGE REGISTERS 35 TO 21 WIN OVER CEDARVILLE

Bliss Business College, of Columbus, continued its sensational winning streak by turning back the Cedarville College "Yellow-Jackets" 35 to 21 for the second time this season Thursday night at Alford memorial gymnasium.

Playing with characteristic ease, the tall, rangy Bliss quieted moved up and down the floor with precision, ringing up points with clockwork regularity, and Coach Marvin Borst's lads never figured.

In fact, the Yellow Jackets congratulated themselves on holding the victors to such a low score. Paul Orr led Cedarville's offensive with twelve points. Erwin Bliss forward, was high-point man of the conflict with fourteen points, closely followed by Stewart, a guard, who contributed ten. Little played a fine defensive game for the losers.

Cedarville's next game is with Jerry Katherman's Capital University quintet at Columbus March 5. Lineups:

Cedarville (21) Bliss (35)

Adair ..... f. .... Shrofe
Jacobs ..... c. .... Mechling
Little ..... f. .... Stewart
Rockfield ..... g. .... Griffon
Field goals—Erwin 6, Stewart 5, Griffon 2, Shrofe 2, Druey 1, Orr 5, Nagley 1, Evans 1, Rockfield 1, Jacobs 1. Foul goals—Orr 2, Little 1, Erwin 2, Shrofe 1. Substitutions: Cedarville—Nagley for Adair; Evans for Nagley. Bliss—Allen for Griffon; Druey for Stewart. Referee—Hummons, Wittenberg College.

Wilmington College's "Green Tornado" had little trouble winning from Antioch College Thursday night on the Quaker floor 37 to 21 for its fourteenth victory of the season.

Captain Edwin Zigler, of Wilmington, scored ten points, bringing his total to 1,151 for the 197 games in which he has participated during his collegiate career.

Special ceremonies were held for it was Zigler's final appearance in a Wilmington uniform. He had been out of the game for some time with a badly injured knee.

With his injured knee heavily taped for protection, Zigler took his accustomed position at center, and, although unable to step around the court, exhibited his usual accurate eye for the basket.

He is a graduate of Columbus East High and during his colorful high school career appeared in Xenia on several occasions. Not once has he been forced out of a game on personal fouls nor has he ever been held scoreless.

M. R. Denver, former congressman, presided at special ceremonies between halves of the game. Wilmington business and professional men presented Zigler with a deposit book showing an account of $200, in recognition of his achievements. Cal is recognized as one of the greatest, if not the greatest, athletes ever produced at Wilmington.

WILBERFORCE WINS TWICE IN CAPITAL.

Wilberforce University's basketball representatives, now enjoying a long road trip during which probably six games will be played in the East, invaded Washington, D. C., Thursday, and won its first two engagements.

Wilberforce nosed out the Washington Alceves 35 to 34 in the afternoon and then proceeded to administer a decisive defeat to the sturdy Howard University quintet 21 to 14 in the evening.

The team expects to rest up Friday in preparation for the contest with the famous Morgan College team at Baltimore, Md., Saturday. Morgan's team is recognized as holding the hardwood court championship for the past two seasons among colored colleges in the country and a close game is expected.

ESCAPE DEATH

SAN SEBASTIAN, Feb. 25.—The ex-Empress Zita of Austria and Prince Otto, claimant to the Austrian throne, escaped from death when their automobile turned over near the International Bridge at Irua. Neither was injured.

ST. BRIGIDS LOSES TO URBANA SCHOOL THURSDAY NIGHT

St. Brigid's High School basketball team wound up a rather disappointing season by being overwhelmed 37 to 16 by St. Mary's High in the final game of the season Thursday night at Kearney Hall at Urbana.

A large crowd of Xenia rooters attended the contest.

Ruzzutti, diminutive Italian forward, led St. Mary's in scoring with thirteen points, while Kelbie starred for St. Brigid's with seven points. Lineups:

St. Brigid's (16) St. Mary's (37)

SPRING VALLEY BOYS, HOME AND BOWERSVILLE GIRLS LOSE TILTS

Trampling on the opposition by decisive margins, Beaver Creek and Ross Twp. girls' teams and Caesar Creek boys came through safely in the preliminary rounds of the thirteenth annual Greene County Basketball Tournament at Central High School gym, Friday morning.

Beaver girls eliminated the O. S. and S. O. Home girls in the opening game of the tourney 24 to 19 and earned the right to meet Friday night at 8:20 o'clock.

Ross Twp. girls in the first round survived its preliminary round by defeating Bowersville girls 23 to 14 in a one-sided affair.

In the only other game staged in the morning, Caesar Creek boys demonstrated they are a contender for the county title by easily downing Spring Valley 23 to 17 to become eligible to enter the first round.

Caesar Creek will meet the winner of the other preliminary round game between Ross Twp. and Bowersville boys' teams at 9:15 p. m. Friday.

Keen competition and closely fought contests characterized the opening games of the tourney in leading one of the greatest tournaments in the history of the event.

"Run Down?" You Need Stimulation

THIS SCIENTIFIC METHOD REVEALS VITALITY AND NERVE FORCE.

The whole energy and vitality of the body depend on what you get out of your food. If the glands of your digestive organs are not doing their work properly, you are bound to feel "run down," tired all the time, with no ambition and no enjoyment in life.

Scientific stimulation of the glands of your stomach and mouth and other vital organs will bring back vigor to your whole system.

A remarkable stimulant- tonic has been devised for just such conditions as these. It is delightfully palatable and is prepared by an old Virginia concern in business for nearly a century. Druggists and physicians have come to know this stimulant as "Old Monticello Tonic."

Get a bottle today from your druggist, take a small wine-glass full before your next meal—see how much better you eat—feel the glow of stimulated functions throughout the body. A few days' treatment will bring a quick change in run-down conditions and overcome lack of energy. —Adv.

CLEAN KIDNEYS BY DRINKING LOTS OF WATER

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BLADDER BOTHERS OR BACK HURTS.

Eating too much rich food may produce kidney trouble in some form, says a well-known authority, because the acids created excite the kidneys. Then they become overworked, get sluggish, clog up and cause all sorts of distress, in the kidney region, rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, acid stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary irritation.

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right, or if bladder bothers you, begin drinking lots of good water and also get from any good pharmacy, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity; also to neutralize the acids in the system so that they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to help keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus often avoiding serious kidney disorders. —Adv.

Do You Have These Symptoms?

If You Fear An Operation Because of Gall Bladder Trouble or Gall Stones, Watch These Signs.

Perhaps you don't know whether you have this trouble or not, but if you are bothered with dizzy spells, headaches, shortness of breath, gas in stomach and bowels, pressure or sharp pains in right side that often shoot through to the back, coated tongue, bad breath, lack of ambition, weakness, nervousness and nights of restless misery—you probably are a victim of this health destroying menace that fills your system with poison and may mean a dangerous surgical operation unless checked at once!

Folk near or past middle life are especially liable to hepatic torpidity, gall bladder trouble or gall stones—and in the opinion of the writer one of the best things in the world for conditions of this kind is the regular home use of "Klax-Ko" tablets which Sayre's Drug Store and other good druggists supply on a binding guarantee to refund their entire cost if genuinely beneficial results are not obtained inside of a week.

Klax-Ko tablets have brought new life and health to hundreds and they must positively do the same for you or their use will not cost you a penny. Try them today. —Adv.

Just AMONG US GIRLS

by Kathryn Kenney

"THE COMING OUT PARTY"

It used to be necessary for a girl to have a coming-out party to be introduced to Society; now she just picks it up!

Mother used to give a big ball so that daughter could meet all of her friends. Now she gives a big bawling out and nothing is met—not even the bills!

However, no girl minds having a party, even though when the invitations are received, the recipients say, "Now it all comes out!"

All of the best dancers are present—the others have a past! When the stags out in they call it "crashing the gait!"

Any girl with a string of pearls at her coming-out party would up at all, and it's up to father to have a "coming across" party all by himself. Daughter is probably in the den telling a few social lions that they are lambs.

Unless some man gets left with the girl who is giving the party, no one remembers whether she was present or not. She probably got forgetful and went to some night club, thinking it was too stupid to dance all night in the same place.

No party is complete without a few "extinguished" guests! Society may be what is used to be, but no one can locate it to find out!

Many times it's a good moment for a girl to announce her engage-rather have a string of men.

Early in the evening mother discovers that daughter picked up her "receiving line" from a college boy.

The detectives are all there, and there's many a man from headquarters with a headache.

Of course, now that girls go out from the time they can talk back, you can't expect them to go get a thrill out of a few rented dress suits.

The receiving line starts out in the good old-fashion way; only the modern girl soon remembers that it's less boring to give out than to receive.

Generally, daughter doesn't turn ment, so she only "comes out" in time to get caught in a shower!

Some parents insist on a girl looking like a debutante, even if she has to wear white tulle and hide her face.

In this way she meets all the "right" people and her greeting to them is "Ain't you right?"

The next morning a girl wakes up to find that she has been launched into society and has been christened so hard that there's a hole in her social bow.

And many a girl makes her social bow and then never speaks to any of them again.

However, a great time was had by all, even though most of it was "time out!"

Bishop Payne Eulogized By Speaker On Wilberforce Founders' Program

An address by N. B. Young, president of Lincoln University, Jefferson City, Mo., eulogizing the African Methodist Episcopal Church and the late Daniel A. Payne, one of the most prominent of negro educators, featured the annual Founders' Day celebration at Shorter Hall auditorium, Wilberforce University Thursday afternoon.

President Young is also former president of the Florida A. and M. College at Tallahassee, Fla., is a graduate of Oberlin College and holds the degree of doctor of literature. He has had more than forty years experience in school work.

The speaker declared that for years he had never heard of the church, having been reared in a distant area, but that when he first became acquainted with it he fell in love with it and married "one of its fairest daughters, thereby becoming a son-in-law of the church."

"It is an interesting fact," he said, "that the woman I married was co-founder of the institution named in honor of the man whose name we are here to commemorate, Payne University, at Selma, Ala."

"Bishop Payne was the personified conscience of the A. M. E. Church and along with this he had a militant conscience and visualized as few did. He saw what many are beginning to see now. It would be a good thing for him and those who were associated with him to see this fine group of students, look around throughout the church and this institution. This is the shadow of his wonderful past."

Mr. Young related how the educator attempted to purchase the property valued at $10,000 with no money and how it has materialized. "It is wonderful to know such men of strength and integrity. One hundred years from now we will give some men who are connected with the school today, the same respect as it is given to Bishop Payne."

"The golden era is just at hand," he said in closing, making the forecast that Wilberforce may in the near future compare favorably with such colleges as Columbia, Yale and Harvard.

Exercises opened with the invocation delivered by the Rev. John Wesley, followed by a tenor solo, "A Dream," by Robert P. Ecton, noted soloist. President Gilbert H. Jones introduced the speaker. At the close of the address, Homer Smith responded to special requests with a vocal solo entitled, "Only A Year Ago," and was encored twice.

The annual financial meeting was held at Galloway Hall Thursday evening in connection with the celebration and nine different university departments, represented by students reported contributions totaling $2,486.26 for current expenses for the fiscal year.

The college department, comprised of about 350 students, raised $1,348.50 of this amount.

Among the personal contributions received from outside sources was a gift of $25 by Sheridan Brubeaux, Chicago detective, who recently conducted an investigation into the financial affairs of the university.

The vocational department contributed $226. Pro rated, this would be $15.10. In the automobile race conducted by T. M. Clark, the prize Ford roadster was won by Harry Roberts, Philadelphia, Pa., who reported having raised $235 of the fund. To the young girl raising the largest amount above $10 was awarded a hope chest filled with useful articles of wearing apparel. This award was won by Miss Maggie Williams, Tampa, Fla., who reported $51.

THE REV. JOSEPH DUBRAY

Exclusive Dispatch, Copyright 1927 WOOD, S. D. The Rev. Joseph Dubray decided that a county farm agent, showing farmers how to get a better living out of their acres, was more useful than a minister, so he shed his ministerial garments and became an authority on farming.

Dubray is the first full-blooded Indian ever appointed to the position of county farm agent.

Dubray was born on the Cheyenne reservation in South Dakota, in 1877, and was educated at Carlisle Indian school and the Hampton Normal and Agricultural Institute, Hampton, Va. In 1916 he was graduated from a three-year theological course at the Theological seminary, Alexandria, Va., and in August of that year was ordained in the Episcopal church.

After that for nine years he fulfilled ministerial duties on the Pine Ridge, Sisseton, Lower Brule and Rosebud reservations.

During the Spanish-American war Dubray served in Company I, Sixth Massachusetts infantry, in Cuba and Porto Rico. He now is chaplain of the United Spanish War Veterans of South Dakota.

Two years ago the Indian priest resigned his commission as a missionary and enrolled in South Dakota state college at Brookings, where he studied to become a farm agent. After he passed the civil service examination, he was appointed farm agent for Mellette County.

Educational Talks Heard At P.T. A. Meeting Here

PRESIDENT OF OHIO COUNCIL SPEAKS AT XENIA CONVENTION

Seven Hundred Attend Dinner at Central High School

"Express your soul. Learn who to trust and who not to trust. It is necessary for everyone early in life to have someone in whom they can give complete confidence."

These were among the advisory statements made by Mrs. C. E. Kendal, Lakewood, O., state president of the Ohio Council of Parents and Teachers at the city and county P.T. A. meeting, at which Central High P.T. A. was "hostess" in Xenia Thursday.

All children, from the beginning of time, have reached the age when they thought their elders were old-fashioned and "didn't understand them." That condition is no more true today than it was a century ago," declared Mrs. Kendal. She urged the girls to have confidence with their parents and elders and to band themselves in a worthwhile organization, similar to the Camp Fire Girls or Girl Scouts.

Her address on "Mothers and Daughters" was delivered at the afternoon session before the girls of Central High School, patrons and members of the P.T. A. from over the district.

Mrs. S. M. McKay gave a report of the Xenia Federated P.T. A. in the morning. She laid particular stress on the organization's work in the Opportunity School, where sixty-four children are fed daily and given other attention. She emphasized the fact that the school is both educational and vocational. The Opportunity School work was given the highest praise by Mrs. Kendal.

The state president also complimented the work of Mrs. Charles Kinsey, program chairman of Central P.T. A. in having programs for the year printed and distributed among members. Mrs. Carrie Platter, county president of the W. C. T. U., urged the organization's support of the proposed legislative measure to prohibit the advertisement of cigarettes. Mrs. Kendal replied to her request with the announcement that the P.T. A. has a representative at Washington and Columbus, who, with co-workers, investigates legislation in which the organization might take a hand, before such action is taken.

Between 250 and 300 members of P.T. A. from the city, county and district attended the all-day session. Mrs. Charles Adair, president of the Central P.T. A., presided during the day. Mrs. Kendal conducted a "school of instruction" in the morning, which was continued late Thursday afternoon. She illustrated her talk with charts, showing the progress of the P.T. A., and an outline of organization necessary to make strides in the work.

County School Superintendent H. C. Aultman, City Superintendent H. C. Pendry, Mrs. Kendal and Mrs. E. G. Byrne, Dayton, state publicity chairman, were speakers on the afternoon program. Music was furnished at this session by the Bath Township Orchestra of twenty-five pieces. During his talk, Mr. Aultman said there were nine such musical organizations in the county schools, as part of the extensive musical program launched in Greene County schools two years ago. He urged attendance at the school meeting at the Xenia Opera House, March 12, when Congressman Beggs and other widely known speakers will be on the program and music will be furnished by a chorus of 200 school children.

"A county, city or country is no better than its children," declared Mr. Aultman. "I am wholeheartedly in favor of the P.T. A.," he said and continued with reasons for the organization's support. "Co-operation and good will are necessary in the community, city and county organizations to solve school problems."

After two duets by Mrs. James Wilson III and Miss Zella Soward, accompanied by Mr. Roy Siefert at the piano, City Superintendent Pendry gave a short talk. "There was a time when the education of the children was left entirely to the parents," said Mr. Pendry in outlining the growth and progress of education until the present. "Democracy gave birth to the present educational code," he said, "it was found that ignorance and democracy were incompatible."

"From 1910 to the present it has been found that it is the work of the schools to meet the needs of the society. We are now seeking what to teach boys and girls in order to fit them for life's work. Education today is a challenge to parents and teachers. Teaching is now a science."

Mrs. Byrne urged the use of wide publicity by all P.T. A. organizations. The P.T. A. units were urged to each have a publicity chairman, who was instructed to use the newspapers and magazines for P.T. A. news in order to further the work of the organization.

Mrs. Kendal's "school of instruction" was continued after Mrs. Byrne's talk.

Dinner was served in the school cafeteria at 6 o'clock, when about 700 people were given over to two plays, in which members of the Junior Woman's Club took part and music by the high school orchestra, under the direction of E. G. Whitworth. The two plays afforded one of the most delightful programs enjoyed by a Xenia audience. The characters in the first were taken by Mrs. Charles Adair, Miss Bess Fulton, Mrs. D. D. Jones, Mrs. Steele Poague, Mrs. Edwin Woodward, John Ballantyne and William Horner. The second had for its characters, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Adair and Mr. Ballantyne. The plays were directed by Mrs. Adair and Mrs. Jones, and were presented recently for the Junior Woman's Club and guests.

A piano duet was given by Miss Dorothea Pagett and Miss Emma LaMar, of the high school orchestra, between the plays.

FIRE DESTROYS TOBACCO BUILDING

GALLIPOLIS, O., Feb. 25.—Fire of an undetermined origin early today burned the Gallipolis loose leaf tobacco warehouse to the ground, causing a loss of approximately $100,000. A cut of Hocking Valley freight cars was damaged. Grayson T. Thompson, Huntington, W. Va., is president of the warehouse concern.

LIBRARY PROPERTY CONVEYED TO BOARD

County Commissioners have recorded a deed transferring ownership and management of all real estate, books and property of the Xenia public library to the board of trustees of the recently-created County Library District. Originally the Xenia Library Association conveyed the property to commissioners June 4, 1913.

The county library district was created by popular vote of the people at the recent election and the library is put under management of five trustees, two appointed by the Common Pleas Court judge and three by County Commissioners.

The property is now taken out of the hands of County officials and placed under control of the trustees to be held in trust for library purposes.

Read 'em and weep !!

There have been folks in this town who have cast very dirty slurs at us Business-Getters who stand up on our hind legs and do a fancy job of BOASTING! Up until yesterday we have NEVER did no boasting but Prosperity and Mister Carroll came in my shop where I was basting a fried egg and says Prosperity, sezze:

"Shorty, did you know that Elmer Strickle, who is constable at Port William bought FIVE Pennsylvania Tires of us?"

I fell back all broke out in amazement and fried egg and he noticing how squedched I looked says:

"Not only THAT, but we sold Bill out on West Main St. SEVEN of these Pennsylvania Tires! Now ole kid whotta you think of THAT!"

I was so full of nonplussment that I bit my knife in two, sprained an eye brow and ripped off one of my most important suspender buttons! And THAT'S SOME surprised, bleeve ME!

Then says I, sezzi:

"Let's ADVERTISE all this! Would make a swell story and Mister Chew and Mister Beeler and Mack over at the Gazette would be all broke out in perspiration on account of how good the paper was to draw business. So they agreed to gimme the dope and I will now print the facts down below. Read carefully.

No. 1. This man's name is Joe and he is a blonde and having only one car he bought THREE of these tires, TWO of which he had absolutely NO USE for.

No. 2. This is a large woman answering to the name of Gwendolyn who has a large limousine and feeling foolish on awakening Wednesday broke in the store and bought ONE tire MUCH against her WILL! She also took an option on a battery.

No. 3. This is a small man who suffers freely from indigestion and falling of the hair. He saw our Pennsylvania Tires and having no car at all felt more or less obligated to do the "right thing" so he bought EIGHT tires and has put them away in a large jar with two cakes of yeast. No one knows YET why this is.

No. 4. This is a large person answering to the name of Henry who saw our ads about the wonders of Pennsylvania Tires and dashed in here speedily to bark at us! Before leaving he bought TEN TIRES of assorted sizes! As he had no car at this time he felt that it was the safe thing to do—so he'd be outfitted no MATTER WHAT kinda car he gets!

No. 5. I do not wish to say ANYTHING about THIS man so I will not mention either his name or his size. There were twelve more deals of this kind all equally exciting, puzzling and happy. So that no one will be offended by leaving their names outta the paper we will let you fill in your OWN name as you see fit.

(More next week—different however.)

CATARRH

DEFINITELY AND POSITIVELY YIELDS!

No Medicine to Take, No "Tablets", No Gargling, No Sprays to "Waste Up Your Nose," No Powder to Be Burned, Nothing to "Smell Up the Room,"
No False Promises

The KLAUSER Success Treatment

Is the Proven Method and is the Best Known for a Successful Treatment of Nasal Catarrh, Colds in the Head and Nasal Passages, "Sniffing," of Colds That Hang On, Sinus Inflammation and Various Catarrhal Ailments of Nose, Throat and Bronchial Tubes. Also affords Relief for Asthma Sufferers.

Sent On Free Trial

Clear the Nasal Passages by the Wonderful Klauser Method

Let us try to explain the difference (in RESULTS) between the KLAUSER Treatment and old-time "balsams," "sprays," "jellies" and the like.

When the nasal passages are inflamed they throw off a liquid discharge through the nose.

Now, if you put some "medicine" into the nose, you accomplish only a little temporary relief and you do not reach the real seat of the trouble because you can not REACH FAR ENOUGH. It would be like treating the tip of the tongue for a sore throat.

But when you use the KLAUSER SUCCESS TREATMENT you are ACTUALLY APPLYING MEDICAL TREATMENT TO EVERY INCH OF YOUR NASAL TUBES, EVEN THOSE GOING FAR UP INTO YOUR HEAD. Also you are giving treatment to the inflamed SINUS CAVITIES of the nose.

Now you can understand why the old forms of treatment can none of them be compared with the KLAUSER Treatment for LASTING BENEFITS.

Send your name and address and let us DEMONSTRATE the WONDERFUL KLAUSER METHOD.

Stop a Nasal Cold Before It Develops Into Chronic Catarrh—
Stop Catarrh Before It Weakens Your System and Develops Into More Serious Trouble.

Headache, Watery Eyes and Nose, "Sniffing" and "Snuffling"

Nothing is more disgusting than Nasal Catarrh, with its foul discharges and ill-smelling breath.

No one wants to even stand near a person who is sniffing and snuffling—for it is well known that Catarrh and Catarrhal Colds are germ diseases, and are easily "caught."

There is only one way in the world to reach all the nasal passages, and that way is to BREATHE the treatment.

When you use the KLAUSER SUCCESS TREATMENT you are BREATHING THE MEDICATION OF GERM KILLING LIQUIDS, combined in such an unusual way that you get the full strength of this medicated air. It is in fact even BETTER than if you could apply the liquids direct to all the tissues. No ointments or sprays can possibly reach further than just the membranes of the NOSE and these usually accomplish almost nothing in the way of a permanent cure.
